

Ward d'Houet Education Board

Board Member Profile: Rev Michael Whiting

Michael Whiting has worked in State, Catholic and Anglican schools in three states, mainly in school leadership.

From 1975 - 1985 Michael was on the staff of Loreto College, Marryatville, South Australia, and for most of that time was the Deputy Principal. From 1995 - 1999 Michael served on the School Council of Loreto, Marryatville, and in 2004 joined the Loreto Education Board and subsequently the Ward d'Houet Board.

Michael and Janine have three adult children, all of whom are married with families of their own. Their daughter is a staff member of Loreto Kirribilli.

Michael is an Anglican priest and is currently the Chaplain to the Anglican Archbishop of Adelaide. He researches in the area of the theology of the church and church schools.

