

Ward d'Houet Education Board

MISSION STATEMENT

The Ward d'Houet Education Board, having been mandated by the Loreto Sisters and the FCJ Sisters, is committed to the provision of outstanding Catholic education of young people in the Ignatian tradition. In exercising its delegated and advisory powers of governance and stewardship, the Board will seek to:

- promote the charism and educational philosophy of the two congregations as central in the provision of Catholic education
- provide leadership and support to each school's governing body in fulfilling its stewardship of students, staff and assets
- discern in partnership with the two congregations and with each school community God's love for the evolving governance and development of the life of the schools.
